

HARC sponsors first Listed Race for Arabian Horses in Brazil

This Saturday, May 6th, at Jockey Club de São Paulo, 1:00pm it will be held the Clássico Jamil Saliba- HARC (L), this race will be the first Listed Race sponsored by HARC, and International Association which support Arabian Race Horses worldwide, mainly in Brazil.

The Clássico Jamil Saliba - HARC is one of the most traditional races for Arab Horses in Brazil, and this is third version honoring the person who encouraging sport the Arab Horse. He was one of the pioneers to support and promote the Arab Horse races in Brazil.

The race will be on 1.400 meters on Turf, however, with the several rain over the city of São Paulo since Thursday, the race is open to all contenders, without any absolute favorite, increasing all expectative for the race.

The winner will be the first Listed Race of HARC in Brazil. Ten competitors are registred looking forward to this title:Heron HVP, Velozter, Kazan RB, Zells Zenyatta, CantigaVe, Zells Kate, Mozart HVP, Marei Rach, Vertente Rach and Rhondo Rach.

To standout that Clássico Jamil Saliba - HARC (LR-1400mT) open the festivities for the most important week for Jockey Club de São Paulo, which on Sunday will have Grande Prêmio São Paulo (G1-2400mT), most traditional and important race of the year.

The live streaming can be reached on Jockey website:www.jockeysp.com.br.

The race is set up for 1:00pm and it is easy to register on it to be able to bet in all festival.

*Text and photos: Karol Loureiro /
Translate: Rodrigo Schulze*

The Plates for the winners

Marei Rach, one of the favorites

Cantiga Ve likes the race

